U. S. Brushes Aside Soviet Protests Over Refugee Instructors

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The United States tonight rejected Russian protests and demands in connection with the cases of the Soviet school teachers who have sought refuge in this country.

CURBS ON CREDIT FOR CONSUMERS ORDERED BY U. S.

Controls on Purchases From $50 to $5000 Effective, September 20

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The government today clamped controls on most consumer installment credit purchases between $50 and $5000, effective Sept. 20.

A new Federal Reserve board regulation requires a one-third down payment on automobiles and a 20 percent down payment on most household appliances including stoves, refrigerators, washers, radio sets, and vacuum cleaners.

A time limit of 15 months is fixed for completing all "easy payment" plans of $1000 or less. Eighteen months is the deadline for purchases above $1000.

The regulation is termed "regulation W," the name carried by the war-time credit rule which expired last November.

THE RESTORATION of credit control was authorized by the Republican Anti-Inflation act signed by President Truman the past Monday.

Charge accounts are not affected. These are presumed to be paid off currently, usually on a monthly basis.

Credit sources in New York commented that the new controls will be felt more in house-hold appliances and furniture sales than in the automobile field. Some noted that low-in-

Three Ex-New Dealers Called by Spy Probers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Three former New Deal lawyers were summoned today to testify in a Congressional investigation of an alleged Communist spy ring.

The three—John Abt, Lee Pressman, and Nathan Witt—were told to appear tomorrow for questioning by the House un-American activities committee behind closed doors.

All had been accused by a previous witness of membership in a pre-war Red underground operating here.

Directly or indirectly, these developments tied in with the committee's far flung hunt for subversives.

1. President Truman said the House committee's hearings infringe upon the bill of rights.

2. Alger Hiss, former State department official who served as secretary-general of the United Nations conference, refused to submit at this time to a lie detector test proposed by the un-American activities committee.

Whittaker Chambers, one of the committee's star witnesses, has testified that Hiss was a member of the Communist underground. Hiss denied it.

ABT, PRESSMAN and Witt, the three men ordered to appear before the House investigators tomorrow, were accused of membership in the Communist underground by Chambers, who also leveled the similar charge against Hiss. Chambers is an editor of Time magazine who said he worked with the Communists from 1924 to 1937.

All three of tomorrow's prospective witnesses held jobs as (Continued on Page Twenty-two)

Overflowing Cleaner Pot Causes Fire at Plant

An overflowing pot of carbonized cleaner caused a brief blaze this morning at 1:45 o'clock at the rear of the Pottstown Manufacturing company just across the Hanover street bridge in South Pottstown.

The fire call was put in by a worker, Clarence Wambold. Two pumpers of the Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company responded. Enroute the crew, led by Walter Groff, picked up four men of the Good Will Fire company.

The overflowing cleaner dropped down to gas jet beneath it and then to a cardboard box of miscellaneous metal parts, melting some of them. Damage was estimated at $15.

Constructing Driving Course Headquarters

Workers started this week on a one-story, aluminum office for State police, who will conduct drivers' tests on North Hanover street. The small building, to be completed on North Hanover street, just over the borough line in Upper Pottsgrove township, will succeed the office located 15 years at the Charles S. Nagle garage, High street and Rosedale drive, which was closed because of alterations. Working on the new building are (left to right), William Botts, Thomas E. Weber and Ernest Reinert. They expect to finish their job in one week.

AUTO HAS 'ROUGH' MORNING

May Have Been Out All Night

"This car was only parked here since this morning."

This was Pottstown Chief of Police James A. Laughhead's estimate of the situation that existed yesterday morning near Franklin street and Lincoln avenue.

If Laughhead's guess was correct, it was perfectly clear that the situation constituted a violation of the ban on unlimited, fresh-air parking on borough streets.

But if the chief was right, it also was clear that the car to which he referred, a weary old coupe with 1941 tags, had spent a mighty tough morning: all four of its tires were flat.

MOREOVER, it would seem that the coupe's owner had suddenly grown anxious to spare himself the sight of the old car spending an other such rugged a m. since a "For Sale" sign was on the windshield.

The police chief made his appraisal at the scene in the company of another officer, Motor Patrolman Earl J. Rhoads.

The officers' interest in the coupe followed a visit to the scene Wednesday afternoon by a Mercury staff photographer.

The photographer had wandered out that way after seeing the following letter to the editor:

"At Franklin and Lincoln avenue, you will find another car parked with 1941 tags. This car has been here for a long time. I seen in your paper last week about a car parked so long. So here is one too. I guess the police are blind. We never see any around here."

Neighbors were not inclined to judge the parker harshly, since the coupe has not been there for months and months as was the big sedan on Second street, to which the letter-writer referred.

BUT, THOUGH neighbors differed on precisely how long the coupe had been parked at its sporadic Franklin street and Lincoln avenue, they agreed it was far more than just one morning.

"The car was there at least a week," one neighbor said last night. "About ten days," a second guessed.

"The car was here for only several days," said another.

"It had 1947 tags, didn't it?" "Well?" was the so-draw-you-own conclusion reply of another.

The neighbors spoke in the past tense of the coupe's parking achievement because it was moved yesterday afternoon—on the orders of the police chief.

Sanatoga Listed By State as Site For Weighing

Sanatoga will be the site of the first weighing station in Montgomery county in a two year truck traffic survey started by the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, Traffic Engineer H. C. Gaffert, of the Ardmore office, announced yesterday.

Two dates, Sept. 3 and Sept. 10, already have been chosen for the operation of the local station, he said.

The purpose of the survey is to establish trends in traffic volumes and in weights and sizes of commercial vehicles of each type so that the part played by the highways in

U. N. Council Warns Jews, Arabs Not to Violate Truce in Holy Land

LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Security council tonight warned the Jews and Arabs against violations of the truce in Jerusalem. The four-power resolution adopted held the two parties responsible for actions of all regular or irregular forces under their authority.

There was no opposition to the plan advanced jointly by the United States, Britain, France and Canada.

The Soviet Union, however, abstained throughout paragraph-by-paragraph voting and Russia, Syria and Colombia declined to support some sections of the proposal.

The balloting concluded all business on the council calendar except approval of a report to the Fall meeting of the General assembly in Paris. As soon as this item is finished in private session, the council will recess until the assembly meeting opening Sept. 21.

Mourning Thousands Line Way As Babe Ruth Is Laid to Rest

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—New York said a last good-bye to Babe Ruth today with solemn hush and tears.

It was sharply in contrast to the roaring cheers and laughter that followed him throughout his lusty career—this final farewell to a home run slugger who enters into the folk history of America.

The crowds that always followed the hulking figure were still there. Police estimated 6000 persons were in huge St. Patrick's cathedral for the Requiem Mass.

Another 75,000 stood in Fifth avenue and the Rockefeller Center area surrounding the cathedral in the heart of the city. They were deathly still and many wept.

When the mass ended at noon and the Babe was borne outside in a gentle rain and taken north on the avenue, many thousands of others lined the route.

Pottstown Steelmen View Possibilities of New Casting Method

Pottstown steelmen yesterday were anticipating the possible wide-spread use of the new one-step casting process of steel, which may cut the cost of the product and eventually revolutionize steel-making.

Two companies, Republic Steel corporation of Cleveland, O., and the Babcock and Wilcox Tube company of New York, have developed a method and a simple machine to carry out the one-step process, a dream of the steel industry for a century.

The new method will remove from the usual production method the largest and most expensive parts of steel plants, such as equipment for ingots, soaking pits and the blooming mill.

SPOKESMEN for the two companies, who completed a series of tests in Beaver Falls, Pa., said that the new process will mean a saving of at least $3 a ton in the production of steel.

In addition, it will increase production by a considerable margin, and will allow decentralization of the steel industry.

The new process, named "continuous casting," will be used in the production of steel.

Housing Groups to Ask Change in Zoning Law

Changes in the borough zoning ordinance of 1945, to remove some restrictions on homes, will be asked by the citizens' and council's housing committees.

The two groups decided at a meeting in borough hall last night that relaxation of certain provisions of the zoning laws was desirable, to permit more conversions of large homes into apartments and to allow the construction of multiple unit homes in areas now restricted exclusively to single homes on large lots.

Members of the planning and zoning commission will be invited to attend the next meeting of the two housing committees, it was decided last night.

In addition, Harold E. Binder, chairman of the citizens' committee, said he would sound out contractors Warren B. Zern and Stanley Swinehart, both of whom have built multiple unit projects in the past, about possible future rental housing in row or garden-type units.

BURGESS WILLIAM A. Griffith and councilman Gerald J. Daly were outspoken in their demands that the zoning ordinance be modified.

"We've been stymied by the zoning ordinance several times in the past," Daly pointed out. "It blocked several very good propositions last year."

Members of both committees agreed that a moderate change in zoning would encourage housing developments.

Griffith also suggested that building and plumbing restrictions be brought up-to-date. "If we could get rid of some of the frills, homes would be a little cheaper," he declared.

A REVISION of the borough's zoning ordinance already has been contemplated.

Borough officials have met with representatives of the Institute of State and Local Government, of the University of Pennsylvania, to plan possible changes in the law. Reference to this contemplated revision was made last night.

Griffith also asked for conversion (Continued on Page Ten)

Sergeant Candidates Pass First Hurdle With Flying Colors

"They look like four very good prospects," Herbert S. Myers, chairman of the Pottstown Civil Service commission, said last night after each candidate for the new post of street sergeant had been given a 15-minute interview with the commission.

Dressed in natty, non-police attire, the four candidates appeared in borough hall for the first hurdle to possible appointment as sergeant.

Myers and the other two members of his group, S. Leonard Miller and George H. Saylor, quizzed the patrolmen on their motives for seeking the job and what qualifications they thought they had, as well as on their knowledge of fingerprinting and their police school training.

"THEIR ANSWERS were very frank," Myers declared.

The next hurdle for the candidates will be a physical examination Saturday morning. Then will come the Aug. 27, written test, rating of the top three men by the commission, and finally selection of one of these top three by borough council.

The sergeancy candidates are Motor Patrolmen Lewis Borgiet and Thomas A. Lawler and Patrolmen Paul Bridgman and Robert Houser.

NEW INCREASES IN MILK PRICES EFFECTIVE TODAY

Quart to Cost 22 Cents As Ruling by Board Passes Midnight Deadline

HARRISBURG, Aug. 19 (AP)—Most Pennsylvania housewives will start paying 1½ cents more for a quart of milk tomorrow.

New orders of the State Milk Control commission, boosting retail and wholesale prices in 12 marketing areas, become effective after midnight. The increase is expected to send up the State's milk bill $16,000,000 a year.

Only consumers unaffected by the changes are those residing in the Pittsburgh area, which includes most of Western Pennsylvania, and rural communities.

The commission, however, has scheduled a price conference for Pittsburgh area here Aug. 24, at which time a proposal for similar increases is expected. There is no change in sight for small towns in the State-wide area where the price has stood at 18 cents for some time.

THE NEW RETAIL prices for a quart of standard milk range from 17½ cents in the Harrisburg, York, Lancaster, Williamsport, Sayre, Johnstown, Altoona, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, and part of the Schuylkill marketing areas to 22 cents in Philadelphia suburban, Erie, Reading, Lehigh and zone two of Schuylkill areas.

The orders also provide larger milk checks for farmers. The minimum prices for 100 pounds (46 ½ quarts) of class one milk go up 40 cents, accounting for one-cent of the retail boost. The remainder will increase the spread for distributors.

The increase was ordered by a (Continued on Page Twenty-two)

At the same time, Charles J. Custer, Highland road and Wilson street, was elected secretary of the new board.

All three members of the board, Schulz, Custer, and Rufus H. Boyer, Upper Pottsgrove, were present at yesterday's meeting. Following the elections, they discussed the formation of a woman's organization to handle the registration of eligible men.

Registrations will begin Aug. 30 and will continue for 18 days. The draft board office in the YMCA will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day to process the registrations.

SOME BEEF CUTS DIP AS MUCH AS 21 CENTS POUND

Pork Remains High On Cakes List, Margarine Takes Slight Slash

The solid upward trend in food prices was broken yesterday as butter dropped for the second time in two days and beef tumbled sharply.

Butter was slashed four cents to 82 and 83 cents per pound. The new price cut followed a two cent drop from 88 and 89 cent levels Wednesday.

Although the break in the butter market was a welcome sight to harried housewives, even more welcome were cuts ranging from four to 21 cents in the price of beef.

In one High street chain store, steaks fell from 80 cents and 81 levels to 79 cents per pound. Chuck roasts dropped from 78 to 59 cents and were followed by cuts of 19 cents cuts in the price of standing rib roasts from 78 to 69 cents.

Short ribs and ground beef each took a four cent drop, short ribs going from 49 to 45 cents a pound and ground beef from 63 to 59 cents.

Both pork and lamb prices stayed at their high levels, with pork being termed the "most expensive" meat cuts on the market.

THE BREAK in the price of butter was attributed to falling wholesale prices on the New York Mercantile exchange which govern retail prices in this area. The wholesale price cuts, followed by a sharp movement in the gold-silver-bullion stocks, stood at $2,442,000 pounds as compared with $3,073,000 on July 1.

Some buyers resistance and a cut in speculative buying because of a drop in future prices also were considered causes of the wholesale price cuts.

Suits for $48,000 Filed by Family In 3-Car Accident

A combined total of $48,042.76 in damages was asked yesterday in two suits filed with the Court of Common Pleas against Richard K. Mest, 200 Oak street, by Mr. and Mrs. Byron S. Van Horn and their daughter, June, 637 North Evans street.

The two suits were filed by Attorney Joseph L. Prince, representing the Van Horns, as a result of a three-car crash at the intersection of Oak and Charlotte streets the past Nov. 26.

Mest assumed responsibility for the accident at the time it occurred, admitting to the police that he passed the traffic signal at the intersection after failing to notice that it was red. His car, traveling east on Oak street, crashed into a car from south on Charlotte street by David Lucas, 138 High street.

At the same time, the Van Horn car driven north on Charlotte street by Miss Van Horn, crashed into the pile up.

IN THE SUIT filed by Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn, it is charged that Mest was operating his car in an "illegal, reckless, improper, negligent, and careless manner." As a result, the accident caused them to suffer serious injury.

Van Horn suffered skull injuries, concussion, back injuries, and injuries to his right knee, which, it is alleged, will leave him permanently disabled, prevent him from performing his usual work, cut down his earning power for the rest of his life, and will require further treatment. He asks $35,542.76 in damages, which includes (Continued on Page Ten)

Pennsylvania Population Boosted, Board Reports

HARRISBURG, Aug. 19 (AP)—New residents have been pouring into Pennsylvania at the rate of 62,000 a year since 1945, the State planning board said today.
The board said that only three other States in the nation have experienced such a sizeable population increase.
Latest federal census estimates, the board added, show the civilian population of the Commonwealth has gained 602,000 between 1940 and 1947. This is an increase of 6.1 percent in the seven-year period.

New Gold Currency Created in China; All Banks to Close

NANKING, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Chinese government announced tonight creation of a new "gold yuan" currency worth 25 cents—three million times the value of the old inflation-riddled money it replaces.

Shanghai financial circles immediately expressed doubts that this drastic measure would succeed in the long run.

They said it might wipe out the present black market in currency, as the new fixed rate is approximately that of the illegal money changers. But, unless the new money has some substantial backing, the net result would be merely to cut off some of the zeros in current astronomical transactions.

BANKS WERE ORDERED closed Friday and Saturday to permit the start of orderly exchange of old money for new.

Deadline for the exchange was set at Nov. 20. After Oct. 30 possession of gold, silver or foreign currencies will be punishable by confiscation.

A finance ministry spokesman told a news conference the new gold yuan would be supported by 40 percent gold, silver or foreign currency, and 60 percent by government "guarantees."

Shanghai financiers said the government did not have enough gold or silver for such backing of new currency. The only possibility they saw would be to sell various cotton mills and other industries which the government acquired from the Japanese in Shanghai, Tientsin, Tsingtao and elsewhere.

Debate Features Meeting of Granges At New Hanover

A debate with the problem, "Should a Bull Be Left in the Barn or Out in the Pasture," amused a total of 76 grangers when Sanatoga grange was visited by members of the New Hanover grange Wednesday night.

The debate, both teams composed of men, ended in a tie. Sanatoga grangers Luther Schott, Carl Dumire, Charles Moyer, and Louis Brant maintained the bull should be left in the barn, while New Hanover grangers George Nester, John Moyer, and Arthur Landis, insisted the animal should remain in the pasture.

An attendance contest which has been raging over the past 12 meetings, was won last night by the ladies. A previously set rule states that male members will now have to treat the fair sex to a corn roast with all the trimmings in the not-too-distant future.

The New Hanover grange presented the literary program for the evening under the direction of lecturer Mrs. Helen Mest. The entertainment included a reading by Mrs. Florence Landis, vocal solo by William Romig, reading by Mrs. George Smale, instrumental trio, two numbers, by the three Smale children with accompaniment by Mrs. Nora Romig, a flute solo by Mary Ellen Smale, vocal solo by Gloria Reidencour, and a short talk entitled "Communism" by Martin Micholles.

A quiz on flowers was conducted by both granges. Roger Moyer, master of New Hanover grange, and other visiting members, gave short talks.

The flowers are nature's jewels,
with whose wealth she decks her Summer beauty.—Croy.

Another Unpopular Boost
TODAY the price of milk goes up 1 1/2 cents
a quart in the Pottstown area.

It's one of those raises that nobody likes.
Complaints have arisen from the home buyer,
the dealer, the farmer and producer, the state
milk board, state officials and practically everybody.

Milk has been the subject of some heated debates for some time and there's a pretty good reason for opposition to these price raises.

Every individual uses milk and is interested in what happens, especially to the price of milk.
Many families require a lot of milk and they can't curtail in consumption,
as is done in many other items that make up the family market basket.

The producer is to receive most of the price rise this time, but it isn't satisfactory there, either. The producer wanted even more of a boost. When milk sold at 18 cents a quart, the farmer got $5 for 100 pounds.

Today when the retail price goes to 21 1/2 cents, the producer will get $5.30. That still leaves a lot of profit going somewhere else.

Milk dealers don't like the price boost
because their customers have a big complaint, and they fear it will greatly reduce their business.

The state milk control board, always in an argument, doesn't like the boost and the three members have been looking daggers at each other for some time.

"The public is the goat," said a former senator, who, when in the legislature, authorized the milk commission.

And he asks a question:
"What is it, the milk or milking board?" and explains that "the commission was formed to defend the public, the consumer, but seldom does."

Back in 1933 the farmer needed protection,
now the consumer needs it, is an argument of the opponents of a price rise. The board, in settling the price increase, admits that "we are setting a price we frankly don't like."

"Prices are now based on competition, instead of costs. Milk is at an all-time high only because of competition, and not because it costs more to produce and market."

The board is rather frank about it, but still boosts the price.

If the state board doesn't add to the price of milk, then the supply will be sold to eastern markets, where the bidding for milk is high. That's the threat. Milk production is down somewhat at present, while the demand for milk is up. And that makes for the many squabbles.

So milk goes up 1 1/2 cents to the public and nobody is satisfied.

And there's a threat of its going even higher, even though milk production costs are due to come down.

More Gains for Labor
T SHOULD be remembered that when the Taft-Hartley law was passed, the CIO-PAC organization announced that it would fight to defeat every member of Congress who voted for it.

Since that time, 147 members who supported the Act have come up for re-nomination, and 137 of them have won. And only one of the 10 who lost represented a major northern industrial district, where CIO-PAC supporters are supposed to be strong.

This certainly indicates that the rank and file of union labor, like the rank and file of the voters at large, doesn't servilely follow
the orders of the big-shot union officers.
And there is plenty of reason why it should not. The leaders denounced the Taft-Hartley Act as a slave labor law, which would make the most ruthless exploitation of the worker both possible and inevitable.

Yet what has actually happened?
Some of the principal labor groups have made some of their greatest gains since the law was passed. Soft coal is a prime example.
The new contract gives the miners an extremely liberal pension plan. It further increased pay—even though the miners received the highest wage of any comparable group before the new contract. The short working day remains in effect. Every benefit the miners had before the Taft-Hartley Act,
was retained, and more are now enjoyed.

Workers in steel, automobile and other big industries have also won new gains. To say that the Taft-Hartley Act has in any way weakened labor is to deny the obvious truth.

Co-operation Builds Houses
To the Editor: I appreciated the spirit of MEL's "Favorable Co-operation" article, Readers Say, Aug. 12 letter, and when I read a few days later Johnny's
("No Hot Shot as a Builder", Readers Say, Aug. 13).

Yes, Johnny, if you value your hours of pleasure more highly than a home for your family for goodness sake don't try to build one alone or in company with others. But MEL, it's a good idea and it works when ambitious, unselfish people use it.

In our family, a brother's family and a sister's family and our family helped each other to repair and remodel one old house and build two new ones. While one of these men was a plumber and had knowledge of carpentry, one was a mason and one a painter by trade, they all had willing hands. Even the children carried cement blocks and stones for foundations and shingles one coat before they were put in, and finished painting when the houses were ready for that. We mixed pleasure with our work by having doggie roasts, watermelon parties and when the weather got cool even big pots of soup cooked on the fireplace and served outdoors.

Also four friends of ours from another town, one a garage mechanic, another a truck driver, one a riveter and one a welder built a home for all four in partnership only calling in a plumber when needed and an electrician. Otherwise they did all the work with the advice of each other and friends who watched the venture with interest. Of course they were all willing and unselfish and did not worry
one would put in a few hours more of skilled labor while the other fellow was just digging a ditch for the plumbing.

If we had more co-operation and unselfishness in this world we would have a much better place to live. "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver," whether it is money or assistance.
Limerick ASSISTANT BUILDER

Disorganized Police
To the Editor: I think it is significant that only four of 13 eligible patrolmen thought it worthwhile to apply for the civil service examinations for the street
sergeancy recently approved by borough council.

What is the matter with Pottstown's
police force?
Can it be possible that the force is so unorganized, favorite-ridden, and inefficient that patrolmen lose all incentive to advance and are content with their lot?

Or can it be that the level of intelligence on the force is so low that patrolmen can't see that others can not be moved ahead of them until the civil service eligibility list runs out?
I wonder if it is not possible to suggest that borough council make a sweeping investigation of the situation to determine what can be done to boost morale and bring the force up to something approaching normal standards.

People Charged With High Prices
To the Editor: I don't think this Milk Drinker ("The Wrong Plant," Readers Say, Aug. 16), knows what he is talking about. Butter, milk and any other milk products are not too high compared to other things.
If 99 percent of the people in the United States would use one-half the money they spend today for alcoholic drinks for milk and other foods they would be better off. But they would rather give 30 or 50 cents a shot for liquor than pay lower prices for better things.

Milk Drinker then says that the farmer can ship his milk to New York but can't stop milking the cows, but in time they will flood the New York milk market.

Why can't the farmer run the cows
into pasture and raise and sell calves?
Can't they just dry up the milk of the cows? Can't they sell their herds for beef?

Milk Drinker thought he knew something, but he doesn't know a thing when it comes to what the farmer can and cannot do with dairy cows.
The people themselves are bringing on these high prices today and not the farmers.
Douglassville MILK PRODUCER

Hiding Under Bushel
To the Editor: So "Progressive"
makes remarks about my "midget intelligence" just because I think the new automatic gates on Hanover street are a bad deal the borough council got caught in.

All right! But at least I learned from his second letter what "Progressive" is.
He's the guy who bought the ballpoint
pens when they first came out.
He's the guy who sits in taprooms with his mouth open watching television
"shows" that would be booted out of a cowtown movie house.

He's the guy who's read all the "best"
new books, but thinks Huckleberry Finn is a new drink.
He's modern, he is.

WASHINGTON
Steelman Supports
Prefabricated Homes

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—John R.
Steelman, industrial and labor advisor to the White House, has organized himself into a one-man lobby for promotion of a steel-fabricated housing concern that has drawn severe criticism from other government agencies, the industry itself, rival builders and members of the Senate
small business committee.

He has bowed them over with the verbal assurance that he acts for President Truman.

The firm involved is the Lustron corporation of Columbus, O., which is virtually a government-created organization. Indeed, critics of the Steelman project maintain that he favors the firm in order to protect the RFC's loan of $25,000,000 which he forced the agency to make against its better judgment. He also acted under pressure from certain politicians on Capitol Hill and from veterans' groups.

The head of Lustron, which has conducted an extensive advertising campaign in newspapers and magazines, even thought it has not yet got into large-scale production, is Carl G. Strandlund, a big, jovial and likable individual. He is said to have made an excellent record in shortening the time for construction of tanks during the war. Now he seems to be as great a favorite with the Truman Administration as Henry J. Kaiser was with the Roosevelt regime.

SECURITY: The Lustron corporation's original application for a loan was not recommended by the Washington examiner or the business loans committee of the RFC. But on June 30, 1947, the last day that any advance could be made under the housing act expiring on that date, the RFC approved a $25,000,000 loan. It did so, even though its original stipulation that the borrower raise $3,500, 000 was not met. And it required no security.

Mr. Steelman, former Housing Expedi-
tior Wilson Wyatt, White House officials and several members of House and Senate threw their influence behind the application for the money. Previously, former RFC Chairman John Goodloe had told the Senate banking and currency committee that his agency's experience with prefab housing programs had been a failure.

Although RFC had made loans of $200,150,672 to manufacturers of such units, Mr. Goodloe testified that the government had to pay out more than $7, 000,000 in settlement, and with no constructive results.

STEEL: Messrs. Steelman and Strandlund next ran into difficulty when they started on a search for sufficient steel for manufacture of the prefabs.
Due to rearmament, Marshall plan and industrial demands for this metal, it is allotted by the Department of Commerce under one of the few semi-rationing laws which Congress passed at White House request.

Such applications are first considered
by the steel products advisory committee, which investigates the nation's general
needs before passing on any specific request. This body turned down all petitions for steel for prefabs at several meetings, but finally set aside 59,000 tons in one of the most peculiar resolutions on record.

After referring to previous difficulties encountered in prefab construction, and pointing out that such homes require ten times as much steel as against only one-
and-a-half in the ordinary type, it said:

UTILITY: "However, we have been advised by various government agencies, including certain members of Congress and representatives of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the Housing Administration, that the prefabricated steel housing program is essential.

The Voice of Broadway
By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Jottings in Pencil

SAMUEL GOLDWYN is quietly excited about a new talent named Betty Cole, a sultry brunette of Russian parentage. He will farm her out for stage experience before giving her the full Hollywood treatment.

The Sardi set is excited over a rumor that Moss Hart and Irving Berlin are interested in doing a film musical which they would produce via their own independent company.

Broadway's blottiest feminine fistfight in many a moon took place in the dressing room at Iceland
last Saturday night
over—no guesses it
—a head.

When
chromographer Guy
Martin finally separated the contestants,
handfuls of hair had been pulled, teeth were missing, and both girls were unable to go onstage. Experts say this season may be the swan song for Saratoga,
once the greatest resort in America.
Business was so bad this Summer that most of the enterprises now suffering at the spa don't even expect to return.

ALTHOUGH RUMORS that he was "looking for playmates" began flying as soon as he returned from sea duty, young Ed Luckenbach vows
he intends to forsake Broadway for nine to five office hours at his steamship company. . . . M'Liss Mc-Clure doesn't seem to be mourning
her lost romance with Mickey Rooney.
The cheer-upper is Jimmy Lydon.

Albert Dodero, South America's number two man, calls Carol McDaniels, the local glamor girl, from the French Riviera, where he's Summer-

ing. She's just returned from a jaunt there. . . . Peggy Cummins is taking singing lessons while abroad. She'd like to make her re-entry into Hollywood by way of the New York musical comedy stage, and she already knows how to hoof. . . . Fanny Brice is the author of one of the routines performed by Jean Carroll, the young comediienne at the Copacabana.
They're close friends.

HEY FELLAS! Do you think you resemble a younger addition of Eddie Cantor? Then contact Warner Brothers, because they're looking for someone to play the lead in "The Life of Eddie Cantor."—You don't even have to be able to sing—the real Eddie's voice will be on the sound track. . . . A major cigaret company is alarmed by a sudden flurry of complaints from customers. It's checking its tobacco stocks carefully, looking for the batch that is causing the protests.
Nightclub business in Mexico City is even worse than it is on Broadway, according to rehuping Gohamites.

PEGGY WOODS is a dilemme. She needs a mink coat for her appearance in "Miss Dilly Dally No.," which opens in Saratoga on Aug. 30, but her own mink
is in storage on the coast and inaccessible, and fur stores are reluctant to rent one because August and September are such heavy buying months for furs. Isn't there somebody with a heart and a few thousand dollars worth of skin who'll lend Miss Wood a coat for the duration of her engagement? . . . Bandleader Gene Williams is so smitten with singer Fran Warren that instead of plugging his new orchestra with the disc jockies, he begs them to play her records! (In Tin Pan
Alley, that's rated as love of the Paolo-Francesca type.) . . . Backstage at "Inside USA" looks like an art school. A dozen members of the cast who have taken up painting have their easels and oils lying around for between-scenes daubing.

THE WORRY CLINIC
By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
SARAH E., 29, is a victim of various neurotic ailments.

"Dr. Crane, my husband gets so disgusted with me, I really wonder that he doesn't ask for a divorce long before this,"
she said mournfully.

"I have so many complexes: I cannot ride on trains. It is really embarrassing to me, too, for people probably think I am crazy."

"Two weeks from tomorrow some girl friends have invited me to go down-town to the theater. They expect to go on the train. But I simply cannot ride the train!"

"What can I do? I don't dare tell them why, for they'd think me silly. Last Summer I started with my husband for a vacation in Michigan. We hadn't left the city limits more than a few miles till I grew so panicky, I actually began to scream."

"My husband had to drive back home,
and cancel our vacation trip. Dr. Crane,
I don't want to be like this. What is wrong with me, and how can I become a normal, happy woman? I am so unhappy I often feel that I might as well be dead."

THIS IS a frequent problem among men as well as women, but space limitations will not permit a full explanation of the cause of this woman's complex.

However, I want to show you the ordinary type of procedure in handling such a patient.

First, it is advisable to delve into the patient's past until you find the year when this fear of trains and distant places first appeared.

Sarah first told me she thought her trouble was caused by an infected gall bladder, which had been surgically removed a few months previously.

But this was only an alibi, for she admitted that her fear had preceded this gall bladder trouble by seven years. Anyway, organic ailments seldom cause such complexes.

A complex is a cluster of ideas about an emotional core. When two deep-seated emotional habits are in conflict, and this impasse is not relieved by a constructive compromise, then the patient may develop neurotic outlets, become hysterical or have a nervous breakdown.

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 19.—Any minute you'll hear of a new radio series (a transcription show) which will be sponsored by the Episcopalian churches, to begin broadcasting early in the Fall. It will be a half-hour dramatic show, taking its play properties for a nominal fee from Hollywood studios
—and using Hollywood acting talent.
The gist of its "selling" will be "If you're in trouble — go to church. If you have no church,
go to the Episcopalian church."

With "The Family Hour" already aired under the wing of the Catholic church, and still another radio program being planned by a third religious group, a "trend" is obvious. And part of that trend will undoubtedly take the price of story material and actors down considerably for those shows — compared to the regular fees. Meetings on the subject are already being held here — very lunatic-hush. But what can the movie companies do about it?
They're strictly "in the middle."

STUDIOS ARE doing nip-ups for Michael Blankfort's novel on the life of Gen. Evans Carlson,
"The Big Yankee." It's the Liberty Book Club selection for September. . . . Ann Triola and Roger Price are making the rounds together. . . . At the post-wedding party that Harry Kurnitz gave for Ida Lupino and Collyer Young the other night, Humphrey Bogart and Milton Spelling got in a big,
fat argument pertaining to Lauren Bacall's suspension at Warner's and were just about to come to blows when as they say, "cooler heads intervened."
and they were dragged apart.
Spelling is about to produce the movie, "Blowing Wild" which Bacall walked out on —
and was saying too much on the subject to suit Bogey.

ALAN LADD's next vehicle at Paramount will be "Under the Gun."
The plot is built around the 12 prison inmates who volunteered for experiments on the disease, pellagra.
Ladd plays a prisoner. . . . Metro is breathing right down the necks of Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, which should surprise no one — and so are a couple of other studios who want to sign them. There's no doubt what an asset both would be to any
lot. These pleasantly crazy comics could be used singly or together and Martin, as predicted here, is a cinch to wind up a great singing star (cowboy or straight) on his own.
He combines all the best singing traits (plus having a gorgeous voice) of the three top crooners—without imitating any of them. You'll be hearing plenty of these two in the near future. It's been a long time since any entertainers have scored the solid hit that these two made with their night club debut in Hollywood last week.

2. The Baltic-White Sea canal.
3. Peter Styvessant.
4. An innkeeper.
5. A caliph of Bagdad, who figures in many tales of the Arabian Nights.

JOBS UPON A TIME

Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle is a veteran of the "chill 'em and thrill
'em" stunt flying days of the 1920's.
Jimmy was born in Alameda, Cal.,
and was taken to Alaska at the age
of three where his father, prospected for gold. Back in the United States he was at one time a banknight houser. He was a senior at the University of California when World War I broke out. He enlisted as a flying cadet. After the armistice he became a stunt flyer, and received a regular commission of first lieutenant in the United States Army in 1920. Jimmy won two national air races, and in 1940 was ordered to active duty in the Air Corps Reserve with the commission of major.

There followed his memorable Tokyo
air raid, which won him the Congressional Medal of Honor. Jimmy is now retired and a vice-president of a refining company. He is married and has two sons.

Helen Traubel, Wagnerian soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, was a St. Louis druggist's daughter with a fine voice.
She made her first professional appearance in a church choir, substituting for her mother. Helen toured as soloist with the St. Louis symphony. Walter Damrosch visiting St. Louis, heard her sing and was so impressed with her voice that he wrote a special role for her into his opera, The Man Without a Country. Miss Traubel made her debut with the Met. in 1937 and has sung many times on the radio.
She makes her home at Laguna Beach, Cal.

Coast Guard Aids Boat in Distress Off Pacific Coast

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 19 (AP)—SOS signals traced to a small kite-flying fishing boat kept Coast Guard and Navy searchers on the go for hours today.

The Coast Guard also gave aid to two other fishing boats in trouble south of here.

A Coast Guard search plane finally located the sender of the distress calls — cranked out through the kite antenna on an emergency device incapable of giving other information.

It was in tow of another fishing boat, 75 miles south of here.

THE BOATS WERE identified through registration numbers on their sides as the Alben of San Pedro (in tow) and the Ginger of San Diego.

The destroyer Perry, which sped to the scene, messaged the Coast Guard that the Alben had a bad leak in the port quarter seam. The Perry said it would pump out the disabled craft and tow it into port here.

Aid was given by a Coast Guard cutter in the same general area to the disabled Patsy Ann, towed to anchorage at the Coronado Islands, and the Sharon Lee.

Local Bottling Firm Joins State Group In Rapping Tax

A Pottstown bottling firm is one of 438 such concerns in Pennsylvania which are rapping the state's 20% tax on nickel soft drinks.

All the 438 bottlers are members of the Keystone Bottlers association, which is attempting to have the tax removed on the basis "that it is completely without justification and that it has made serious inroads into the volume of business."

J. Raymond Gilbert, president of the Ferro-Phos company, 161 North Charlotte street, stated last night that the local enterprise has suffered anywhere from eight to 44% fewer sales, depending upon season of the year, since the tax was levied by the 1947 session of the legislature.

The 20% tax, according to Gilbert and the bottlers association, has only succeeded in diverting millions of dollars from normal trade channels and the effect is being felt indirectly by every business in Pennsylvania.

Emanuel D. Lowenstein, Philadelphia, president of the association, pointed out that the tax, which threatens to take $40,000,000 out of normal trade channels in a two-year period, could pay a lot of wages, which in turn could buy a lot of groceries, clothing, and other necessities.

Delegates to Attend Union Youth Congress

David S. Martin, 112 Linden street, Stowe, announced yesterday that the Pottstown Seventh-Day Adventist church, Glasgow chapel, Manatawny street, would be officially represented at the denominational Columbia Union Youth's congress to be held Aug. 26 to 29 in Philadelphia. Martin is the local leader.

Local delegates, to be seated with about 5000 young people from 366 other Seventh-Day Adventist churches in seven eastern states and the District of Columbia, will include: Stanley Martin, 112 Linden street, Stowe, and the Misses Elsie and Isabelle Kinckner, 134 Beech street. Mrs. Roy Kinckner, also of 134 Beech street, is planning to attend.

Newspaper Edition Really Has Teeth in It

TEXARKANA, Aug. 19 (AP) — "This edition has teeth in it," the Texarkana Gazette told readers in a front page box.

In the composing room, printer H. White accidentally had dropped his false teeth. They fell into a pile of scrap lead and type metal. The metal went into a melting pot; with it the teeth.

The metal was used to make page casts for the Gazette.

BABE RUTH —

conducted by three priests outside the cemetery receiving vault.

When it ended after the crowd joined in the final prayer, Mrs. Claire Ruth, the widow, stood for a full minute looking at the African mahogany casket covered with a blanket of red roses and orchids which she had sent.

Then, pale and composed, she drove away. Cemetery employees gently carried the casket into the vault where it will rest until the family decides on final burial plans.

There was no eulogy at the Cathedral mass. But Francis Cardinal Spellman in a special prayer which he composed, asked that the divine spirit "that inspired Babe Ruth to overcome hardships and win the crucial game of life may animate many generations of American youth."

THE CASKET was borne into St. Patrick's by a double row of honorary pallbearers headed by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Mayor William O'Dwyer.

It was placed on a catafalque flanked by six tall-lighted candles. The blanket of roses and orchids was taken away during the mass.

Mrs. Ruth, the Babe's two adopted daughters, Mrs. Richard Flinders and Mrs. Dorothy Sullivan, and his sister, Mrs. Wilbur Moberly, were in a pew at the head of the aisle.

Mrs. Ruth had insisted that the services be open to all comers, the famous who were his friends and the poor and obscure who had made him their own.

PRICES DROP —

prices tumbled approximately the same amount.

Harrisburg chain stores cut the price three to four cents, registering a six-months low of between 83 and 88 cents a pound and in Philadelphia butter fell six cents a pound in the past two days leveling the cost at 82 cents.

To follow the butter cuts, many stores knocked one cent off the price of margarine.

BUTCHERS HAD no explanation for the cuts in the price of beef, but saw them as a chance to satisfy their customers. Pork prices, however, are expected to remain high. Shipments of hogs to the Chicago market have fallen off as farmers are heading a Department of Agriculture request to curtail slaughtering. The request was made when it was determined that a good corn harvest will be reaped.

Instead of shipping lean hogs to market, the farmers now are fattening them on corn. A heavy supply of high-priced pork still is in cold storage, butchers believe, and prices will not drop until lower priced meat is received.

ZONING CHANGES —

of large homes into apartments, as another way to alleviate the housing shortage. Reducing some zoning requirements, like the number of square feet required for each resident, and changing the zoning laws to allow apartments above garages in more areas, were among Griffith's suggestions.

Binder emphasized, with the concurrence of the committee members, "We don't want to abandon the idea of building low-rent houses," as the men discussed zoning changes.

Much of the session, lasting nearly two and one-half hours, was devoted to a discussion of government aid, now virtually limited to insuring construction costs of rental projects.

Binder reviewed committee actions since the first joint meeting the past Aug. 3.

HE RECEIVED discouraging replies from officials of the State housing board and of the Philadelphia Housing Authority, he said, citing high costs and the difficulty of financing a rental project as the chief obstacles.

A survey of borough land held by the county for taxes, Binder declared, showed a number of lots scattered through Pottstown.

Adjacent lots, where several units could be built, were found on Sembling avenue, Industrial avenue, Grove street and Isabella street.

Shandy Hill, general manager of The Mercury, suggested inquiries into possible Veterans' Administration and Binder agreed to investigate the chances of help from that source.

At the Aug. 3 session, the committee members supported the formation of a "limited dividend housing company," a corporation to be financed by private funds but controlled by the State.

BINDER REPORTED that not one such corporation had been formed in Pennsylvania during the 11 years since the law was passed setting it up.

For prestige value, the committee members agreed, a State-backed corporation was good, but from an investor's standpoint it was not, since the State would control every phase of the corporation's activities.

Much of last night's discussion centered around the demand for housing, both rental and purchase.

Councilman W. Mark Henricks, summing up the situation, remarked, "During the depression when homes were cheap there wasn't any money. Now that there's plenty of money around homes are so expensive that hardly anybody can afford them."

Those attending last night included builder L. Ernest Pickard, Councilman Allen K. Davidheiser, chairman of council's housing committee; George P. Ruyak and William H. Reifsnnyder, assistant borough solicitor; L. Stanley Manger and Ralph H. Spare, secretary of the Pottstown Chamber of Commerce.

Sibmita, Idaho, is named after an antimony ore.

STEELMEN VIEW —

tinuous casting," uses a relatively inexpensive mold, small enough to put in an ordinary family garage, as contrasted to the gigantic equipment now used in casting.

The announcement of the new method said:

"Continuous casting permits passing directly from the melt to semi-finished sections ready for secondary mills with the result that not only is the capital cost for a given output greatly reduced, but also maintenance and operational costs."

"The work accomplished to date makes it clear that for the production of relatively small quantities of steel and particularly as a means of decentralizing steel production, this new development exactly fills the requirements of low capital and low operational costs."

Basically, the continuous casting process involves the use of the special mold which accepts molten steel directly from the furnaces whose heat has imparted the hard qualities of steel to pig iron and scrap materials. This same mold forms billets, cools these billets and then cuts them to any desired length up to thirty-five feet.

TO ACCOMPLISH these results by current methods involves the use of heavy and expensive equipment that first forms raw ingot steel, then cleans it in soaking pits, then warms it preparatory to reducing it.

Asked to evaluate the development in the light of its importance to small communities, a spokesman for the two discovering declared:

Some time in the near future when the present abnormal demand for steel subsides and prices are deflated, there is going to be a great dislocation of industry in this country for the simple reason that recent abandonment of the basing-point method of steel sales will not allow competitive sales of steel in localities far removed from the producing areas.

Steel companies, because of the necessity to refrain from freight absorption, will not be able to compete in distant markets and will sell only in their own areas.

"That would mean that consumers would have to cluster around the steel areas or the steel industry would have to decentralize, building plants throughout the country. All consumers could not move and very few steel companies could move because of their huge and expensive equipment."

"With this new continuous casting mold, however, steel companies will be able to move — to move into towns like Dallas and Seattle and other places which are too small to sustain a large and completely integrated steel mill under present conditions."

transportation may be appraised accurately.

A TOTAL OF 30 weight stations will be operated, 15 the first year and 15 the second year. The 15 stations to be operated during the first year all are located in Eastern Pennsylvania.

Each station is scheduled to be operated 16 hours, eight hours during the period 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. and eight hours during the period 6 p. m. to 6 a. m., each month of the year on a week-day. Night operations, however, will be limited to a selected number of roads carrying an appreciable amount of commercial traffic during night hours.

Every two hours weighing will be changed to traffic in the opposite direction, excepting that when traffic is light, trucks in both directions will be weighed.

Highway department crews will use portable weighing machines and will weigh only the wheels on one side of a truck. It is estimated that only between five and ten percent of the passing trucks on any highway will be stopped and weighed. The crews will be assisted by the State police.

The folder said: "All roads travel to Possum Lodge, the smartest all year resort in the mountains, located on the shore of Puddle Lake, offering every seasonal sport including tennis, handball, flogie, football, rowing, golf, blupp, horse-back riding, ping-pong, shuffleboard, ladies, and many other activities."

"... continuous noise, excellent cuisine, accommodations a la deluxe, a wonderful crowd of young and old folks alike... a vacation for the discriminating..."

And so, Harry Hatchet got into his car and burned up the mountain trails toward Possum Lodge. It sounded just perfect. Finally, Harry saw a tattered sign pointing down a rocky, grown-over road.

It was difficult driving over the huge bumps with one hand on the wheel and the other holding his teeth in, but five miles later Harry stopped at a rambling, tottering shack. He got out, and walked to the door, paused, then knocked. The door fell in. A possum ran out. An old, bearded man came to the opening. "What's up, young feller?"

"Where's Possum Lodge, old feller?" asked Harry.

"See lookin' at it, young feller. I'm the proprietor."

"But... this folder??... where are all the people?"

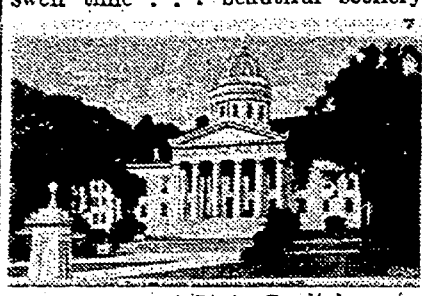

"That folder is 15 years old, young feller. As for the people, I fed 'em to my possums. The depression was perty bad."

Harry leaped into his jalopy and streaked down the road, holding his teeth in with both hands.

Model Club Plans For Air Meet Here; Trophies Procured

Plans for the model airplane meet to be staged by the Pottstown Model club and sponsored by the Optimists on Sept. 19, have been forging ahead, according to modelers' president, Edward Jameson.

The meet, to which perhaps 500 contestants from all parts of the country will attend, will be held on the Daniel Boone home estate at Baumtown, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

A skeleton of plans were drawn up the past Tuesday by several club members, and a meeting next Monday night at Pratt's bicycle shop will determine what specific duties will be dealt with members.

Jameson stated that 25 to 30 trophies were being procured as prizes for the event.

Twenty members of the club traveled to the home for practice flights last night.

Five Hurt by Gunfire
As Crowd Forces Back
Raiders Led by Soviets

BERLIN, Aug. 19 (AP)—A gunfire raid by Soviet-controlled German police in downtown Berlin was turned tonight into an anti-Communist demonstration by a crowd of 600 infuriated Germans.

The crowd shouted taunts of "Communism" and "these pigs, the Communists," and stoned the Soviet police into retreat. Five Germans were reported wounded by police bullets, one perhaps fatally.

C. C. Bond, deputy chief of the safety branch of the U. S. military government, said he was "pretty certain" that five persons were wounded by police gunfire but was unable to verify reports there was one fatality and that more had been wounded.

One German reported to American authorities that some demonstrators burned several Soviet flags in the shell of a ruined building. This could not be confirmed.

UNLIKE PREVIOUS raids on Potsdamer platz, no Russian soldiers or military police apparently were involved in the raid, German witnesses claimed, however, that just before the raid opened they saw two Soviet officers drive through Potsdamer square, possibly planning the action.

The German police had chased alleged black market operators in sprawling Potsdamer platz to the borders of the British-American sectors of the city.

Four truckloads of British police stayed at their border posts in the area. At the American border, armed military police strung five jumps across the street. They were reinforced by a score of German police.

SOME WITNESSES claimed the police violated sector borders by crossing over into the American zone. They said two volleys were fired, one in the Soviet sector and one in the American sector.

Other witnesses said the trouble started when the police beat a woman with their clubs. By-standers began hooting and hurled bricks from the top of piles of rubble.

The violence provided new evidence of the tension which has been building up in Berlin since the Russians opened their campaign to drive the Western powers out of the city by blockade tactics.

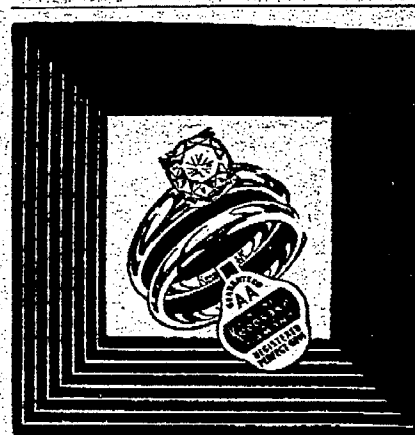

German police from the American sector said the Soviet-backed Police Chief Paul Markgraf was a witness to the demonstration. His refusal to accept dismissal by the anti-Communist government split Berlin's police into an "East" and "West" force.

THESE PRISONERS 'TOO BUSY'

'Cons' Prefer Work to Vacation

ATLANTA, Aug. 19 (AP)—Prisoners at Atlanta's Federal penitentiary are being offered a week's vacation, with room and board, but some of them don't like it.

They offer the timeworn excuse of the harried businessman, "I just can't make it now. I can't leave my work."

Warden W. H. Hiatt started the vacation idea to improve morale among 2200 inmates. Many of them have been toiling at the same task seven days a week for many years.

On "vacation," they can sleep as late as they please. They can bask in the sun, play tennis, go to two shows, spend the day in the library, or just take it easy in their cell bunks.

BUT, STRANGELY, says the warden, some of the men are so wrapped up in their work they won't quit. He quoted a machinist engaged in making an intricate valve:

"Thanks, but I've got a job to do. I just couldn't leave it now. I can't let a vacation interfere with my work."

Only inmates with outstanding records are given vacations, the warden added. That spurs the others to better conduct—provided they want a little rest.

Russian Teacher
Improved, Returned
To Oxygen Tent

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Oksana Kosenkina was returned to an oxygen tent tonight after a four-hour period without artificial aid to her breathing. Roosevelt hospital, however, said her condition was "very much improved."

She first was placed in the tent yesterday when she had difficulty with her breathing. She also was given a blood transfusion last night.

Tonight's hospital bulletin said: "Oxygen resumed at 6 p. m. condition very much improved. Patient more alert. Temperature down to 101.8. Pulse down to 90. Respiration 40. Resting quietly and taking nourishment much better."

Her condition still was listed as critical.

Mrs. Kosenkina, former chemistry teacher for children of Soviet consular attaches here, suffered multiple fractures and other injuries in a leap from a third-floor consulate window the past week.

Convicted Gambler
Rearrested by Police

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19 (AP)—convicted gambler, burglar, bootlegger and thief who was discharged three times by former Chief Magistrate John J. O'Malley was rearrested today by State police.

Special Deputy Attorney Laurence E. Eldridge, chief investigator of O'Malley's administration, ordered the arrest.

Eldridge charged that O'Malley acted illegally in discharging defendants who should have been held for court.

Truman Cites
Porter's Help
As Aid Quits

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Paul A. Porter today gave up his duties as special assistant to President Truman.

Porter, former chief of the Office of Price Administration, was enlisted by Mr. Truman a few weeks ago to help present Administration price control and other inflation-curb proposals to the extra session of Congress.

Mr. Truman told Porter he had helped clarify the record on the anti-inflation program to allow the people to decide whether the Administration or Congress was right.

"That the Congress did not see fit to enact that program does not in any way reflect upon the manner in which you carried out your difficult task," the President wrote Porter.

Porter is returning to his private law practice here.

Green was reported on his way back to Washington from a speaking tour and not expected to receive the message before tomorrow.

Hunt Ends

Dejected, and well he might be, is 22-year-old Thomas Nichols, manacled to a bench in a New York precinct station after he tried to cheat the law by slashing his left arm with a broken water glass. Caught after an 89-day hunt, he is accused of robbing and attacking six women in apartments.

Crowd Waits for Parade,
Watches Fire in Store

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19 (AP)—Thousands of spectators jammed Walnut street between Broad and 13th street late today to watch firemen battle a blaze that swept a men's wear shop.

The crowd was swelled by those who had been waiting on Broad street for the Pennsylvania American Legion's 40 and 8 parade.

Deputy Fire Chief William A. Simmler said the fire apparently started from spontaneous combustion among heaps of paper and discarded boxes in the rear of the Herbert Rome men's wear store.

CIO Officials Defer
Endorsement; Truman Argues Italian Issue

By The Associated Press

The nation's two great labor organizations may decide in the next two weeks whether to call on their rank and file to support President Truman or Gov. Dewey for the presidency.

CIO leaders, meeting in Washington yesterday, deferred a commitment until Aug. 30, but praised the 1948 Democratic platform. They hit at "do-nothing" Republicans and "bigoted Dixiecrats" and said the Wallace Progressive party has created "disunity."

The AFL's educational and political league will meet in Chicago Aug. 25 and may decide the question of a presidential endorsement. President William Green said in June the AFL never will support Gov. Dewey. One AFL union, the Teamsters said Green was not speaking for it.

Also, during the Democratic national convention, Phil Pearl, AFL publicity director, when asked to comment on Green's remarks, said the AFL won't support President Truman either. He said the AFL would not support any Presidential candidate, but would concentrate on congressional races.

AFTER YESTERDAY'S meeting of CIO vice presidents and other executive officers, Philip Murray, CIO president, called a meeting of the 51-member CIO executive board in Washington Aug. 30 to discuss the question of endorsing a presidential candidate.

U. S. Airlines to Boost
Passenger Fares 10%

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The nation's airlines will increase passenger fares in general 10 percent as a result of an industry conference with the Civil Aeronautics board today.

Chairman Joseph J. O'Connell Jr., of the CAB, reported the forthcoming increase as one of the informal decisions of the conference on the industry's financial difficulties.

The rate boost will make the average fare just over six cents a mile on most air lines. The present average rate is 5.5 cents.

No date had been fixed for the increase, O'Connell told a reporter, adding the airlines would have to comply with other technical procedure before the increases could become effective.

O'CONNELL SAID that in considering steps to relieve the airlines losses, which totaled $16,000,000 in the 12 months ended March 31, the board felt that elimination of free meals aloft is desirable.

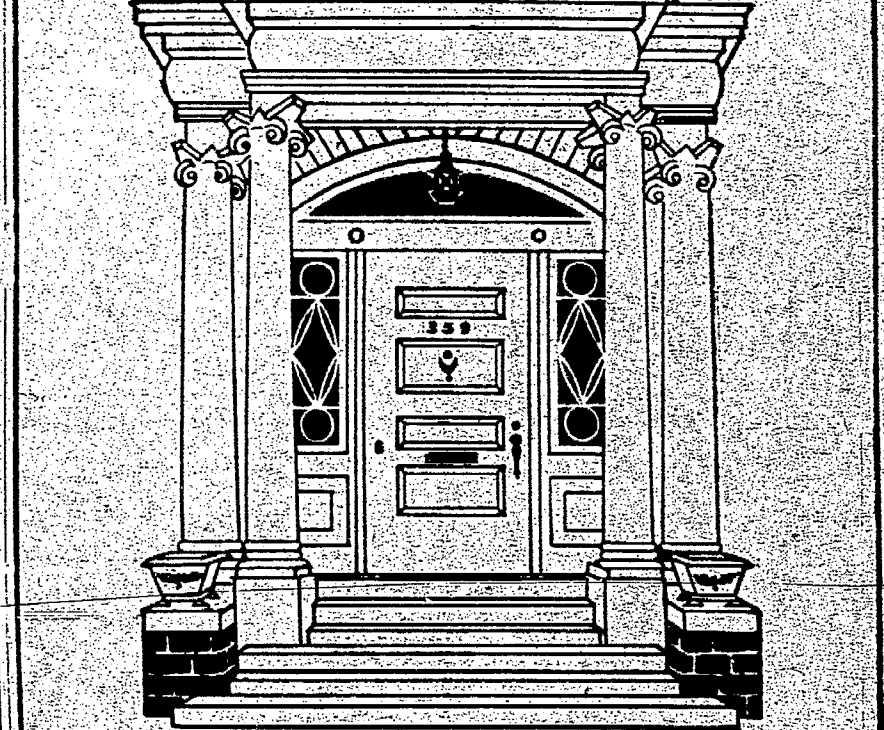

"If we had to make a decision today, we would have ruled, at least by a majority, to end free meals," O'Connell said.

As a working figure for discussion purposes during the day, the board adopted $11,000,000 as the annual cost of free meals served to airline passengers.

THE INFORMAL understanding to increase passenger fares was described as calling for a general 10 percent addition to the present fare structure of the "big five" and a corresponding increase by other airlines at points where they are in competition with the "big five." These five are American, United, Trans World, Eastern and Northwest airlines.

Three of the five—United, Trans World and American—have filed applications for 10 percent increases to be effective in September.

O'Connell said the board will approve the fare increases proposed by United and Trans World, but will give further consideration to the qualified fare boosts proposed by American.

35 Escape Injury As Huge Plane Lands

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (AP) — A twin-engine American airlines plane with 35 passengers aboard landed safely on two wheels at the Glenview Navy Air field today after circling two Chicago airports for more than an hour with its nose wheel jammed, the control tower of the Chicago Municipal airport reported.

The control tower said the pilot came in "tail heavy" and that the plane nosed over "only slightly." No one was injured in the emergency landing.

The plane was Flight 363 from Cincinnati to Chicago. The plane arrived over the Chicago airport at 5:22 p. m. (Pottstown time).

Berks Youngster Struck At Rail Crossing Dies

READING, Aug. 19 (AP) — Janet Bellman, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bright Bellman, of West Leesport, died today in St. Joseph's hospital several hours after she was struck by a freight train at the West Leesport crossing of the Reading company.

Dr. C. J. Best, of Leesport, said the child suffered a fractured skull, fractures left leg and a severe cut of the scalp.

The number of Diesel locomotives in the United States increased from 1267 before World War II to more than 5000 in 1948.

The plane circled for an hour while the pilot attempted to lower the nose wheel.

Pottstown Parents Approve Comic Books As Favorable Reading Material for Children

Yesterday in New Albany, Ind., three small boys between the ages of eight and nine, strung one of their playmates up to a tree and tortured him with matches. Upon their receiving their ideas from the comic books.

One hundred percent of the parents of Pottstown children feel that this could not happen among healthy, happy normal children. They are certain that with the right environment, proper training and good parental guidance that their children are safe from such atrocities—comic books or no comics.

Whether they completely approved of the comic books or not, all mothers felt that the books had no bearing whatever on the viciousness mentioned above—a child would have to be a pervert from the start—a comic book alone would not give it to him.

A GREAT number of the mothers are quite careful which of the comic books their children read, claiming there might be a great deal of harm in the more vicious crime comics, while others maintain that they are unable to cope with the comic craze, and as their children will borrow or beg them, feel safer if they read them in their own home.

One mother stated that the only fierce opposition she has ever heard against comic books was by mothers that had no children of their own.

Most favored by the mothers are the animal comic books, with most parents even enjoying the reading of the books themselves. In fact, most of the mothers do read the comic books and enjoy them. They assert that they do not believe they have any effect on the child whatever, that they never hear vicious threats or see wrong-doings as a copy from the books.

PARENTS have given a great deal of thought to the matter, including Mrs. Richard Scheffey, 841 North Franklin street, who has five children, all in the comic attraction ages. She maintains that with the proper parental guidance, a child can read and see things which he knows to be wrong, and yet will not go wrong.

"A parent can not protect their children forever, from all the evil influences in the world, be they comic books, companions or movies," she states. "If the parent builds in the child the right character and has the proper influence with him, he will not be sidetracked by things which he has been taught are evil."

Mrs. Robert C. Mallison, 1012 High street, was one of the mothers who did not approve too highly of the more sinister type of book, though she could not see that all of the reading of them has affected the morals or actions of the children she knows.

HER YOUNGEST son, Michael, six, is the greatest offender of the comic book. He is rather particular which of the books he brings home. Her daughter, Mary Sue, age 11 and Bobbie, 14, do read the books young Michael buys, but they take them in moderation and are not too much entangled with the love of them.

Another booster of the comic books is Mrs. Edwin Kammerzell, 221 Henry street, though she, too, is particular which books her daughter, Alice, 13, reads. She feels as so many other mothers do, that the children are going to read them anyway, and they might as well bring the books right into the house and let their parents know what they are doing. She believes that the better books even carry a thoughtful moral for the children.

IN ONE respect she has been even grateful to the books. When her daughter was learning to read, she still preferred that mother and daddy read to her at home. After she learned that she was not going to read the story over and over again to her—which is one of the "musts" of the "menace"—she rapidly learned to read by herself, that she might enjoy them.

Though both her children, aged seven and ten read the comic books, Mrs. Charles L. Weaver, 204 Diamond street, does not approve of them, and much prefers her children to read other magazines and books. She was not of the opinion that even the more vicious could actually harm the children, but thought there were so many good things to read that it was a waste of time.

YOUNG EIGHT year old David Foley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Foley, 328 North York street, also reads the books, though not before his mother has carefully scanned them to see that there none of the blood and thunder ones amongst the heap which he keeps in the family magazine rack.

He takes his reading in moderation and quite nicely but prefers the animals to the gangsters.

Mrs. A. Emery Lord, 835 Spruce street, was interrupted in the reading of a comic to her youngest son, Peter, 2, who dearly loves the books, even if he doesn't know what they are all about. She could not believe that any of the books which she had seen could corrupt the morals of children to the point of committing crime.

Rather, she is of the opinion that more corrupting is done by the movies than by the scenes in the books, which after all are of such extravagant art that even small children can't help but realize they are not real people. Her other children, Nancy, 10; Thomas, 8 and Patti, 5, are all readers or lookers — and no distortion of ideals in the batch.

ON NORTH Keim street is Mrs. Arthur Neiman with her three children, Peggy, 5; Betty 4 and Shirley 10, and mother and daughters all read comic books and enjoy them thoroughly. Quite fortunately the children go for Micky Mouse, Donald Duck and Bambi, which Mrs. Neman firmly believes is good for them and not harmful in the least.

Though Mrs. James Wilke, 765 North Adams street, has passed safely through the stage of seeing the house filled with comic books, she states that she never did really approve of them. She soon discovered that the less she talked or scolded about the "evil," the less avid readers her sons became, until eventually they lost their fascination for the boys.

Mrs. Kenneth Z. Fillman, 71 Edgewood street, is another mother whose son, now 11, has passed the craze. She didn't mind his reading the books though, and felt that much worse things are observed and can be picked up in the movies. He is launched now in the perusal of sports magazines and rarely picks up a book.

She is den-mother of cub scouts ages 9-10 and often notices when they meet in her home they all dive for the magazine rack and sit rooted to their chair until she calls the meeting to order.

Mrs. Ralph H. Spare, 858 North Evans street, once had the menace to contend with too, but feels there are so many different kinds of comic books, that with a little bit of care on the part of the parents they would be able to pick ones which would fascinate the child and at the same time still be educational to him.

So it appears that the youngsters of Pottstown have won the battle of the comic books and they are here to stay. They have convinced their parents that the books are not corrupting their morals, spoiling their English or making them blood-thirsty in the least.

Rather they have brought a large number of parents around to the picking-up of a comic book now and then for entertainment for themselves after the children are quietly asleep.

Executive Board of PTA Holds Meeting in Norco

The opening gun of the Fall season of Parent-Teacher association work in North Coventry schools was fired with a meeting of the executive board held at the home of the president, Mrs. Lawrence Belman.

Plans for the season included the discussion of several subjects, the first of which will be a rummage sale for the purpose of raising funds for articles for the school. Plans were discussed for the sending of a delegate to the state convention in Scranton in October, as well as community participation in a number of program activities to be outlined at the first regular meeting.

Other officers of the organization include: Mr. Leonard Bauman, vice president; Mrs. Edna Shinehouse, secretary; and Mrs. George Yocom, treasurer.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY

Combine Two Big Plays

Among the various maneuvers possible to a declarer, three are considered basically the most dramatic, the fundamentally big plays of the game. These are the squeeze, the throw-in and the trump coup. Upon the rarest of occasions a fine cardman gets a chance to apply the principles of some two of these in a single play. When that occurs, his execution of the maneuver not only gives him inward satisfaction, but entitles him to invite gently and accept graciously the congratulations of his partner and opponents.

This deal, from our records regarding the late William Cheeks of Washington, was a fine and fitting example of several splendid things. First it revealed his confidence in Mrs. Cheeks, who sat in the East and who, he knew, would not pass the 2-No Trumps no matter what she held, as they used that bid. Second, it exhibited his artistry in the play of a neat hand. Third, it earned him a top score in the tournament.

In 1948, U. S. proven crude oil reserves were at a record high level of more than 21 billion barrels.

Finds Fault

Senator Carl A. Hatch (D-NM) (above) yesterday declared in Clovis, N. M., that the current spy exposes in Washington are having a "bad effect on the safety of the nation." He said publicity given spy activities hampers the FBI by forcing Communists underground and causing them to destroy papers which otherwise could be used against them.

THE "REGULAR SEASON" champions of the City-Industrial league have failed again. When the Coffee Cup went down to a 4-2 defeat at the hands of Doehler's Diecasters last night and dropped out of the league's Shaughnessy playoffs, it became the sixth team to finish the regular season in first place and then fail to win the championship.

The City-Industrial league was organized back in 1943 and fans have yet to see the team that finished in first place come through to win the title.

In 1943, Doehler's finished the season in first place but lost to Jacobs No. 2 plant in the semi-finals. Bechtel's, the fourth place team, went on to be crowned league champs.

The following year saw USA 2177 finish in first place. The Steelworkers, however, lost to Jacobs No. 2 plant in the semi-finals and the latter went on to be the titlists.

Doehler's again finished first in 1945. This time the Diecasters passed the semi-finals and went into the finals to meet USA 2177. The Steelworkers, remembering what had happened the previous year, defeated the Diecasters in the finals to keep up the "jinx."

A strong Pottstown Quoit club team ran away with the circuit in 1946 and had little trouble in finishing first in the standings. The Amvets eliminated the "regular season" champs in the semi-finals and UAW 644 went on to win the title.

Then it was the Amvets' turn. The World War II vets topped the standings after the regular season ended the past year but that was about all they did. Flag's upset the Amvets in the semi-finals but Doehler's won the championship by beating Flag's.

Now it's the Coffee Cup. Manager Al Lupacchino's crew completely outclassed the seven other teams in the circuit this year to finish in first place. Then the Coffee Cup slugged two games in the semi-finals to drop out of the title picture.

The "jinx" is still on. THIS COLUMN took a day off the past Saturday and visited Duke Wilcox at his half-mile dirt speedway in Hatfield.

A lot has been said about Wilcox's track and we were curious to see what it was like.

Well, after a thrilling automobile ride over the back ma-cadem roads we finally arrived at the speedway.

We picked a good night, for George Fonder and Shorty McAndrews, Ken Hickey's famous driving team, were making their Hatfield debut as AAA drivers. The fans came from far and wide to seek Hickey's team and none were disappointed.

Fonder, making his first appearance on a dirt track in the East, wasted little time in showing what his Offenhauser could do. The veteran Lansdale driver piloted his car to a new world's record for a half-mile.

The electric eye, which is used to time all races at Hatfield, stopped the clock on Fonder's qualifying lap at 24.70 seconds. Officials announced that Fonder was averaging 76 miles per hour on the half-mile track.

Fonder is well known by local racing fans. He was a member of the American Racing Drivers club for years before he changed over to the American Automobile association a few weeks ago.

Shortly after making the change, Fonder, as you probably remember, won the 25-lap feature on the Santa-toga track in good time.

BOBBY SCHANTZ, former Pottstown high baseball star, appears to be headed for the major leagues. The little southpaw, now pitching for a Philadelphia Athletics farm team in the Class A Western league, is sporting a fat 17 and 4 record.

Schantz, with his 17 victories, has done most of the work in lifting the Lincoln, Neb., Athletics into first place in the Western circuit.

Philadelphia Athletics officials have termed Schantz as the best major league prospect in baseball today and are currently thinking about adding him to the Athletics' staff.

The A's will probably allow Schantz to finish his season with Lincoln before bringing him to Philadelphia. Since the minor league season closes a few weeks before the major league season, many a major league club add minor league players to their rosters.

If the Athletics are still in the thick of the pennant race in the last few weeks, Connie Mack may give the orders to promote Schantz.

If the little southpaw does make the big time, he will be the first one to do it since Buck Weaver was with the Chicago White Sox in 1919.

Paul Christman Cards

Charlie Conerly All-Stars

The game between the College All-Stars and the Chicago Cardinals, champions of the National Professional Football league, tonight in Chicago's Soldiers' Field may turn out to be a pitchers' battle. Paul Christman, the Cards' quarterback, will be pitted against such former college stars as Charlie Conerly, Mississippi, and Johnny Lujack, All-American from Notre Dame. The game is expected to draw 100,000 fans who will officially inaugurate the 1948 grid season.

FORMER DENTIST EARLY LEADER IN DENVER TOURNEY

Middlecoff Cards 65
In First Round; Hogan And Bulla Tied for Second

DENVER, Aug. 19 (P) — Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., who quit the dental profession to go after bigger money on the pro golf circuit, jumped out in front today in the $12,500 Denver Open.

The slender, freckle-faced young Tennessee chipped seven strokes off par for the Westshire Municipal course as he covered the first 18-hole lap of the 72-hole tournament in 65, one stroke off the competitive record.

This gave him a one stroke lead over husky John Bulla of Phoenix, Ariz., and Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., in the battle for $2150 first-place money.

ALTOGETHER, 26 players broke par, although great pains were taken to toughen the trim course for the tournament. Tees were moved back to increase the yardage from 6589 to 6768 feet, the roughs were permitted to grow high and traps were enlarged.

Deadlocked for fourth place at 67 were Ky Laffoon of St. Andrews, Ill., Fred Haas Jr. of New Orleans, former national college champion, and Harold Haddock of Denver, a young Westshire amateur. Haddock was the leading amateur of the first round.

Ed Furgol of Pontiac, Mich., and George Fazio of Conshohocken, Pa., were tied at 69.

Philadelphia Man Upsels Schroeder

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19 (P) — Criss crossing the court with torrid volleys and dropping unreachable placements while making almost impossible saves, Philadelphia's Victor Seixas today startled the tennis world by eliminating the nation's second ranking Ted Schroeder from the Challenge Cup singles at Newport Casino.

Schroeder, from La Crescenta, Calif., topped in this annual affair, was swept from the courts in a four set quarter-final match. Seixas thoroughly outplayed the Californian after the first set.

Injuries Weaken All-Stars; Pros Favored to Win Annual Grid Game

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (AP) — Football's greatest pre-season spectacle pits the College All-stars against the seasoned Chicago Cardinals tomorrow night in flood-lighted Soldier field. A crowd in excess of 100,000 is expected to fill the stadium to standing room capacity to see the talent loaded collegians meet the champions of the National Football league in the 15th annual game of the series.

Joost Returns To A's Lineup In Night Game

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19 (P) — Shortstop Eddie Joost, sparkplug of the pennant hungry Philadelphia Athletics, is available to the A's on a lend-lease program with Graduate hospital.

The hustling Joost, sent home from Boston yesterday with a battered right hand, can play tomorrow night against the New York Yankees but he'll have to return to the hospital immediately after the game.

Dr. I. I. Gopadze, team physician, said X-rays of the injured hand were negative and that Joost could see action if owner-manager Connie Mack desires to use him.

THE HAND is sore although the swelling has almost completely disappeared, Dr. Gopadze reported. "Eddie will have to come to the hospital after each game for wet dressing treatments. That should keep him in the game unless he damages the hand again," the doctor said.

Joost's injury has been described as a jammed thumb but actually the severest pain is over the corner bone at the lower left edge of the palm. It was injured originally in St. Louis against the Browns when he slid into third base.

The bespectacled infielder laid off a week but he readily admitted in his hospital room today, "I guess I came back too soon."

He hurt the hand again yesterday while swinging at a third strike in a game against the Red Sox.

Doehler's Eliminate Coffee Cup From City League Title Picture

CHAMPS GAIN FINALS WITH 4-2 TRIUMPH

Four Errors Costly to Coffee Cup; 700 Fans Watch Playoff Game

The Coffee Cup, pre-season favorite, dropped out of the City-Industrial Baseball league's title picture last night.

Manager Al Lupacchino's crew suffered its second consecutive loss in the semi-final bracket as four errors helped Doehler's defending league champions to a 4-2 triumph on Franklin Field.

The Diecasters, by winning, are sure of a berth in the final playoffs. Manager Jim Egolf's gang must await the outcome of the Flag's-UAW series before starting their final bid for their second consecutive title.

The Autoworkers face Flag's on Franklin Field in the second game of their series. Flag's won the opener and could end the semi-finals with another victory tonight.

A CROWD of approximately 700 fans moaned as the Coffee Cup threw away its second semi-final game last night.

Joe Coccie was victim of poor fielding. Doehler's collected but four hits off the Coffee Cup pitcher, but all of their hits were sandwiched between errors and accounted for the four runs.

In the second inning singles by Nels Weidenbaugh and Dixie Rayson were wrapped around three infield errors and scored Doehler's first two runs. An error by Bus Conner followed singles by Rayson and pitcher Ron Ackner in the fifth frame and gave the Diecasters two more runs.

ACKNER WAS TOUCHED for seven base hits and was constantly in trouble, but he always seemed to get himself out of the tight spots without allowing any runs to score.

The Coffee Cup enjoying a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Joe Caputo's fly ball scored Bud Stolpe from third base. Stolpe had walked, went to second on an infield hit by Franny Wolfe and advanced to third on Walt Coffey's sacrifice.

The ALL-STARS most brilliant showpiece is Johnny Lujack, All-American quarterback from Notre Dame. But he may be overshadowed by Bob Chappuis of Michigan's undefeated team or Charley Conerly, Mississippi's great passer who last year completed 133 pitches.

Lujack will be the firing pin of the T-formation attack which will be backed up by a single wing unit led by Conerly.

The Cardinals will present one of the greatest running attacks in professional football. Coach Jimmy Conzelmann's offense is based on the speed of Charley Trippi, Elmer Angsman and Boris Diamantcheff at the halves and the battering power of Pat Harder at fullback.

Ruth Admirers Offer Ideas For Memorials

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (P) — The big fellow with the booming bat and vibrant personality never will be forgotten as baseball is played, but already ideas are being offered to keep the nation constantly aware of what Babe Ruth meant to the game, and to the nation.

Memorials of numerous varieties are being suggested, ranging from cancer foundations to the renaming of stadiums and streets and the issuing of stamps in his honor.

The Paterson, N. J., Evening News proposes that the Babe Ruth foundation become America's monument to the Babe, and has sent a check for $1000 to J. Paul Carey, foundation treasurer, to start the campaign.

THE BABE RUTH foundation is an organization to foster and sponsor baseball "among the kids of America." Melvin G. Lowenstein, Ruth's attorney, said Babe originated the idea and made the first contribution. The foundation provides funds for junior baseball, and hopes to award college scholarships to outstanding players.

Ed Knebel, president of the Austin, Tex., baseball club, said he would ask minor league president George Trautman's permission to donate the proceeds of one home game to help start a Babe Ruth Cancer foundation. Ruth died of cancer the past Monday.

Joe Engel, president of the Chattanooga, Tenn., Lookouts of the Southern Association, has much the same idea. He would have each club in organized baseball hold a Babe Ruth Day and contribute the proceeds to a Babe Ruth Cancer fund.

BALTIMORE, which gave Ruth to baseball, plans to name its new bowl "Babe Ruth Stadium," according to Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro and Chairman William Callahan of the stadium advisory committee.

Spicer's Cafe Loses by 4-1 To East End

East End's defending softball champions evened up the City-Industrial league's final playoffs at game apiece last night by defeating Spicer's Cafe, 4-1, at South Pottstown.

Three games have been played in the series to date, but only twice have the games produced winners. Spicer's won the opener, 1-0, in nine innings and East End was forced to come from behind to tie Spicer's in the second tussle, 5-5.

Tonight the two teams will meet in the fourth game of the series on Fisher Field. Game time is set for 6:15 o'clock.

EAST END broke a scoreless deadlock in the third inning last night with two runs. The champs followed up with two more runs in the fourth inning and then coasted the rest of the way for its first win.

Spicer's scored its lone run off Don Scherer in the sixth inning.

Don Nagle started for Spicer's, but was replaced by Johnny Haulak in the fourth inning when East End tabbed its third and fourth runs.

PIRATES EDGE CHICAGO CUBS BY 2-1 SCORE

'Rip' Sewell Wins Fifth Game From Bruins as Bucs Sweep Series

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (AP)—Truett "Rip" Sewell, long a thorn in the side of the Chicago Cubs, scattered eight hits to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 2-1 victory today and a sweep of the two-game series with the Chicagoans.

It was Sewell's eighth victory of the season, and his fifth against the Cubs. He allowed three walks, but two errors were made behind him. However, he was masterful in the clutch and the Cubs left 11 runners stranded on the baselines.

Both Pittsburgh runs were tainted. The Pirates counted in the first when Andy Pafko dropped Bob Scheffing's throw on a steal, and walked over the winning marker off Eyle Lade in the sixth. Dixie Walker, who garnered three of Pittsburgh's eight blows, singled and was safe at second when Emil Verban fumbled. He scored on Danny Murtagh's single.

Athletics Romp Over Boston Sox by 10-3

BOSTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Philadelphia's Athletics romped to a 10-3 victory over the Red Sox today, retaining second place in the American league's runner-up spot which the Bostonians had taken over yesterday.

Boston used five pitchers in the last three innings in a vain effort to halt the A's who drove starter and loser Joe Dobson to cover in a four run seventh before a paid and dismayed audience of 18,846.

Dobson hasn't won a game since he gained his 13th triumph here July 25, a 3-0 shutout over the league leading Cleveland Indians.

DICK FOWLER who won his 12th for the A's was replaced in the eighth at his own request. Fowler pleaded fatigue and was replaced by left hander Lou Brissie after Burdie Tebbets singled.

Brissie fanned the next three batters in succession. The only one of the Sox to get on against him was Ted Williams who was brushed by a pitch in the ninth.

Pete Suder hit his fifth homer of the season for the A's for two tallies in the second. It was his third off Dobson.

Yanks Rally in 5th To Defeat Senators Behind Reynolds, 8-1

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Right-hander Allie Reynolds posted his 12th victory of the season today as he pitched the New York Yankees to an 8-1, five-hit triumph over the Washington Senators.

Reynolds also ignited a six-run fourth inning rally that enabled the Yanks to win the game when he singled with the bases loaded and two out to send home the first two runs of the inning.

Brecheen and Moore Lead St. Louis to 4-0 Win Over Reds

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19 (AP)—Harry Brecheen pitched the onrushing St. Louis Cardinals to a 4-0 shutout victory over the Cincinnati Reds today with the aging Terry Moore providing most of the batting punch.

The triumph, Brecheen's sixth in a row and his 15th of the year against four defeats, left the Red-birds just two games behind the front-running Boston Braves and one game behind Brooklyn. Both Boston and Brooklyn were idle.

Moore smacked his fourth circuit blow of the season into the left field bleachers in the fourth inning to break a scoreless deadlock.

Best beer we ever brewed

Thousands of men and women, hundreds of club owners, hotel proprietors, tavern operators, and others who know beer, say this about Sunshine: "That's the best beer you ever brewed."

Well, good beer's largely a matter of taste, and in the old days we brewed heavy dark beers, porters, stouts, and ales that fitted old-time palates. Today, we brew a sparkling light beer, that naturally is called Sunshine. It's made in the finest of modern equipment. It's brewed with all the skill acquired in 100 years of brewing experience. For real refreshment, next time you're hot and thirsty, try a cold bottle of Sunshine... It's extra light... It's extra good.

Playground Leaders Guests at Banquet; Four Present Skit

Thirteen playground leaders and their assistants were able to relax a bit after their busiest season in borough playground history when they were guests of the recreation commission for a banquet in a King street restaurant.

Francis Donnan, director of recreation, delivered a short talk, stating "This year has surpassed all previous years in children's attendance, adult audiences at playground events, and in community enthusiasm."

Mrs. Florence Manthorn, playground supervisor, thanked the leaders for their co-operation in making the season a success.

SHE GAVE SPECIAL mention to Marion Walters, Manatany leader, and Robert Sheffield, Jefferson leader, for their fine work in construction of scenery for the play-ground Indian pageant the past Tuesday night.

A skit entitled "Villain's Dilemma" was given following the banquet by Nancy Burdian, Dorothy Fumel, Ray Meeker and Donnan. Betty Levengood presented several piano solos.

Head leaders present were Miss Walters, Manatany; Miss Fumel, Lincoln; Genevieve Snyder, St. Clair; Joan Von Drach, Happy Hill; Mrs. Alice Mitch, Hillcrest; Mrs. Emma Hurter, Rupert, and Miss Burdian, Tot Lot.

Assistant leaders were Barbara Silver, Lincoln; Gladie O'Such, Jefferson; Miss Levengood, Rupert, and Meeker, St. Clair.

Parking Meters Produce New High in Revenues

STATE COLLEGE, Aug. 19 (AP)—Revenues from parking meters reached an all-time peak in Pennsylvania in 1947, when 196 municipalities collected $2,739,582.

This was an increase of 48 percent over 1946, said Charles F. Leedecker, assistant executive secretary of the Pennsylvania State College. Receipts this year were expected to exceed $3,000,000.

More than 60,000 parking meters are now in operation in the Commonwealth—more than any other State, Leedecker said.

Sacrifice of Children Halted by German Police

HAMBURG, Germany, Aug. 19 (AP)—Police in Oldenburg said today they raided a frenzied German religious meeting just in time to stop the sacrificial slaying of two children.

The raid was made yesterday at a village near Oldenburg. Officers said the children were lashed to chairs and were to be slaughtered as human sacrifices.

Fourteen members of the sect were arrested. The father of the children was described as the group leader.

"Everlasting prayers" had been going on since Saturday and were to continue until Monday when the cultists expected the world to end. Police said the children were to be sacrificed to prevent the sounding of the last trumpet.

The arrested worshippers were in a deep trance. They were taken away in ambulances.

Berlin's population dropped from about four million to about two million after World War I.
